The white leather furniture is not available for all events. Any event with heavy drinking may not be allowed to rent these items (determined on a case by case basis). For events with red wine or foods that could stain this furniture, we could make these items unavailable for rent. If you choose not to use the white furniture or those items are not made available to you, but you still would like to rent the full furniture rental package, we will honor the 20% discount. Please be aware, if you are allowed to rent this furniture for your event, you are liable for any damages and could result in additional charges beyond your damage deposit. Please contact your event coordinator if you have questions or concerns.
